

Love spells FOR THE SEASON

Draw in true love, attract a lover and find the one with these rituals from Cassandra Eason...

With Valentine's Day nearing ever closer, now is the perfect time to start creating and practising love spells to find that one love your heart so truly desires. We've rounded up a handful of our favourite rituals from one of our best-loved magic practitioners, Cassandra Eason, to help you find the love of your life, whether that's with the help of crystals, flowers or even an Ancient Egyptian goddess.

A LOVE-CALLING SPELL

YOU WILL NEED:

- One green candle • Your favourite piece of jewellery • One rose or lavender incense stick in a holder

This spell is to be performed on a Friday

THE SPELL:

- Put the jewellery in front of the candle.
- Light the candle, look into the flame and say: "I call my love to find me and stay with me faithfully and lovingly, as long as the sun shines and the waters of the earth flow."
- If you already know who the person is, refer to him or her by name throughout the spell.
- Light the incense stick from the candle and write the same words in the air over the candle and jewellery, using the incense stick as a smoke pen.
- Pass the jewellery in a clockwise direction three times above the candle flame, and repeat the same words.
- Blow out the candle, repeating the same words once more.
- Wear the jewellery whenever you go on a date or to a place where you hope to meet someone new.
- Cast the spell again any Friday you wish to keep the energies flowing.

A VICTORIAN MIRROR SPELL

YOU WILL NEED:

- A mirror large enough to see yourself in
- A floral-scented candle • A hairbrush

This spell is to be performed on a Friday at midnight

THE SPELL:

- Just before midnight, light the candle. Make sure the light is reflecting in the mirror.
- At midnight, gaze into the mirror, brushing your hair gently and rhythmically. Count silently to 100.
- At 100, continue brushing, whispering continuously these age old words: "Come my lover, come to me, over river, over sea, over mountains, far or near, in the looking glass appear."
- When you are in a dream-like state, put down the brush, touch the mirror with your lips, and close your eyes.
- Open your eyes slowly and blink. Behind you, reflected in the glass, you may momentarily see the face of the one who will love you in the future, or someone you have already met.
- If you see nothing, shut your eyes again, count to 100 quickly, and imagine the candlelit mirror in your mind.
- Blow out the candle. Your lover's image will come into your mind.

A TRADITIONAL VALENTINE'S MORNING FLOWER LOVE CHARM

YOU WILL NEED:

- A yellow crocus, or any small yellow flower

This spell is to be performed on the morning of February 14th

THE SPELL:

- Before you go outdoors on St Valentine's morning, fasten the yellow flower in your buttonhole or in your hair, as you do so saying three times "St Valentine, the lover's friend, I ask this flower true love to send."
- If you are already in love, change the second line to "I ask that my love will never end", and if you have broken up with a partner, say as the second line, "I ask that my lost love you send."
- Greet the first three people you meet to stir up the happiness energies.
- At the end of the day, scatter the petals to the winds.
